MORNING WORSHIP – 9:30 AM

CALL TO WORSHIP -- RESPONSIVE READING

- (L) The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.
- (P) The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.
- (L) The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
- (P) More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
- (L) Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.
- ALL Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer. Psalm 19:7-11, 14

PRAYER

CONGREGATIONAL HYMN -- “GLORY TO HIS NAME”

Down at the cross where my Savior died, Down where for cleansing from sin I cried,
There to my heart was the blood applied; Glory to His name

CHORUS: Glory to His name, Glory to His name;
There to my heart was the blood applied;
Glory to His name.

I am so wondrously saved from sin; Jesus so sweetly abides within,
There at the cross where He took me in; Glory to His name.

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Dear Members:

Thank God for allowing us to make it through another month. The Lord has been good to us and He has given us another chance to glorify Him in ministry. There is no doubt in my mind, as I have said over and over, that April was truly the best month of this year so far. My son and I would like to especially thank those of you who blessed us with your cards, gifts and especially prayers as we celebrated our birthdays.

We participated in the following church activities during the month of April: our Children sang for the Western Regional Usher Board Convention, we had another All Saints' Meeting; our Sport's Ministry held a bar-b-que and car wash, Pastor Hill preached for Dr. Melvin Wade's Anniversary, we hosted the WCTU Spring Rally, Pastor Hill and Family attended the Homegoing Service of Dr. A. Louis Patterson of Houston, we participated in the first Baptist Ministers' Conference Good Friday service, we had a great Resurrection Day, and we had a fun Basketball Jersey Day. On yesterday, Pastor Hill and Family treated the Mothers' Ministry to a special luncheon in honor of Mothers' Day

We begin the busy month of May giving praise to God for allowing the Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church to see its 122nd Church Anniversary. Every member is asked to give a special gift to our church for this great celebration.

Next Sunday, we will celebrate all Mothers in our lives and in the life of our Church. As a matter of fact, we will celebrate women in general for without women, we would be lost. Please make an attempt to invite many unchurched family members and friends to worship with us on Mother's Day. Remember to make plans to show the women in your life a very special afternoon and evening with family and friends.

This month, our Jane Edna Hill Team will once again participate in the Revlon Run/Walk for Women, we will observe our Annual Women's Day, our Young People's Ushers will be passing out Patron's Lists in lieu of the Young People's Ushers Musical, we will continue our fellowship with Pastor A. D. Iverson and the Paradise Baptist Church, our First Lady Tisa Hill will have a book singing of her first book, the Women's Ministry will have a Spa Day, and we will have a church outing to see "Porgy and Bess" at the Ahmanson Theatre.

During the Memorial Day Holiday, let us remember all those who once dwelt richly among us and each of their unusual and distinct personalities, spirits, and talents for the Lord. In the bulletin, I have listed the names of many who have passed our way since I have been the Pastor.

Let us be mindful that May is one of our busiest months, and summer is right around the corner. Let us be faithful in our service to the Lord as we seek to win the lost and meet the needs of hurting people.

With great expectations in the Lord,

Edward V. Hill II, Pastor

Sister MARTHA VAN NORTON was a charter member of our church. She was a firm believer, strong in faith, and in work and witness.

Deacon TOMMY ROGERS did everything he could to make his church and Pastor succeed, whether that was picking up people, physically working at the church, giving, testifying or shouting. He was a great man of God.

Deacon ANDREW LUKE, JR. was a choir member, a teacher, a deacon, a Vanguard leader, and a friend. His home was always available for the Pastor's use and his words were always encouraging.

Sister BERTHA HAYNES was a leader of the missionary society of the church, a great financial supporter of everything, and a lady always appropriate and well dressed.

Deacon SAMUEL CARTER was a church school worker, teacher, fisherman, chairman of Deacons, and a friend. He will always be remembered for his faithfulness, eagerness, support, sincerity, participation, faith, and love towards the Lord Jesus Christ, the Church, and the Pastor.

Sister BETTYE BARNETT was a quiet-mannered, consistent believer in Jesus Christ. She took pride in her work and she loved her family. She was the most efficient Secretary of the Nursery Department for many years.

Sister ELLA R. ALFORD was a member of the Sanctuary Choir who came from Texas. She was married to our own Brother James Alford, who is still among us.

Mother HILDA LEGOHN was an immaculate homemaker, devoted wife to Deacon Fred Legohn and loyal mother to Althea Blackshear who passed away two weeks after her mother. Mother Legohn was president of the Music Department for many years, Division "F" Leader, and advisor to the E. Victor Fellowship. During our current Pastor's leadership, she was named "MOTHER OF THE CHURCH."

Sister CHARLOTTE CARTER was a super active member, a woman with natural leadership gifts, a barrel of fun, a great worker in our church from the kitchen to the choir stand, the wife of the Chairman of Deacons, Brother Samuel Carter.

Sister MARY KING was one of our long time members who was on the Mother's Board. She was the mother of Sister Gwendolyn Bass.

Sister ADDIE CALDWELL was a soft-spoken and faithful member. She was the mother of Sister Joanna Reader. She added much to our church and is greatly remembered.

Deacon RICHARD A. GLASCO was a deacon, trustee, and a church school teacher. He was a family man, a strong Texan, a devoted and dependable supporter of his church and Pastor. His wife, children and granddaughter are still among us.

Sister NINA THOMAS was an active member of Mount Zion where she served on the Mothers' Board, Baptizing Committee, Age of Promise Church School, and circle member. She supported and loved her church and pastor. She was the mother of Rev. Arthur Thomas.

Sister ROSE M. LEE was one of the most diligent, conscientious workers of Mount Zion -- a Sunday School worker from her heart. She served as superintendent, teacher, church clerk, church historian and in many other positions.

Brother ALBERT OLIVER was a quiet but consistent, faithful supporter of the church. He was a member of the Usher Board and the faithful husband of his dear wife, Minnie.

The Reverend QUINCEY WILLIAMS was the organizing director of the Lord's Kitchen. He was a Sunday School teacher, a lover of prayer meeting, the Pastor of the Outreach Church Bible Study and Drug Program at the Lord's Kitchen, and served in many other capacities.

Sister MARY K. WITHERS was very much an encourager and supporter of the church who loved her family. She was a very active Sunday School participant and she taught for many years in the Young People's Department.

Deacon FRED J. LEGOHN was one of the most dependable men of our church who served as treasurer of our Outreach Fund, a very dependable prayer partner and a trustee. He was always very firm, clear, but kind in his speech. He was the husband of Mother Hilda Legohn.

Sister WANDA JEAN CARTER was always present when her health permitted, volunteering and looking after her children and their best interest. She was a faithful member of the E. Victor Fellowship.

Sister CARRIE ROUSSELL was a circle president, a choir member, a church school worker and a leader of women. We remember her humility and quiet disposition.

Brother JAKE T. BRUNNER was the father of Reverend Ronald S. Brunner. Brother Brunner had a great sense of humor. In his later years, Brother Brunner and his son were united in fellowship and Ron led him to Christ and preached his funeral.
